From Ulster to the Carolinas: Finding Your Scots-Irish Ancestors, a lecture series by David Rencher, AG, CG[SM], FIGRS, FUGA, presented in Charlotte, North Carolina, on 26 July 2008, is available on four CDs, either individually or as a boxed set.

CD 1: Irish Jurisdictions and Reference Works ($12)
Introduction to the basic reference tools needed to conduct successful Irish research.

CD 2: Irish Immigration—The Sources in Ireland ($12)
This lecture discusses Irish records that sometimes give links to North America.

CD 3: The Scots-Irish in North Carolina ($12)
This presentation focuses on the migration of the Scots-Irish into North Carolina, their origins in Ireland, what factors pushed or pulled them into the area, and the records created during that era.

CD 4: Irish Church Records: Church of Ireland, Presbyterian, and Catholic ($12)
Information about the time period, content, and availability of records for the three major religions in Ireland.

Handouts for all four Rencher lectures–available only as a complete set ($10)

Boxed Set: Includes all four CDs and complete set of handouts ($49.99)

The North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register (Hathaway's Register) and David Hamrick's 3-volume index. James Hathaway compiled and edited eleven issues of the Register totaling 1,760 pages which refer many thousands of North Carolina settlers. The Register contains abstracts of land grants, court records, conveyances, births, deaths, marriages, wills, military records, licenses, and oaths. This bundled set includes the Register on CD and the 3-volume print set of David Hamrick's index that contains all 12,000 names found in the eleven issues of the Register. $45.00

NCGS Journal on CD, revised. The NCGS Journal (1975-2010) has been scanned and saved on a fully searchable CD (PC and Mac compatible). The scanned images from this award-winning publication are in a PDF (Adobe Acrobat) format. The Acrobat Reader is on the CD. $40.00
Supplemental 2001-2010 CD. $15.00
