

Free public three-day viewing of the recorded webinar
7-9 February 2020

The North Carolina Genealogical Society presents:

Helen F. M. Leary, CG(Emeritus), FASG, FNGS

“Missing Mothers and How to Find Them”

For more information and to view the webinar, go to www.ncgenealogy.org

About the Webinar: “Missing Mothers and How to Find: Ante-Bellum North Carolina Property Laws and Their Effect on our Research,” will be available for public viewing during replay weekend on 7-9 February 2020. Helen Leary’s series of webinars provide a solid background on the history of North Carolina and the available records. We recognize, in the abstract, that half our ancestors were female. Property law may have masked their identities, but, if we understand those laws, we can direct our research to the records and analyses that help us unmask them.

Webinar Viewing Options

- The free public three-day viewing of this recorded webinar will be 7-9 February 2020.
- After the free replay weekend, the webinar and accompanying handout PDF will be accessible on the website to NCGS members as a member benefit. Not a member? Join today by visiting the Membership tab on the NCGS website.

Helen F. M. Leary is known to many for editing North Carolina Research and writing many of its chapters. Her knowledge of North Carolina records, laws, land, and repositories, plus her many years as an active, respected researcher, have made this book a source for Southern genealogy research techniques.

Helen came to national fame through her research resulting in the probable determination that Thomas Jefferson fathered children by his slave, Sally Hemings. The National Genealogical Society (NGS) has created videos in which Helen provides insight into her research techniques.

Additionally, throughout her career, Helen has served in many capacities in the BCG, NGS, Samford University Institute of Genealogy and Historical Research (IGHR) and has contributed largely to the success of the North Carolina Genealogical Society.

Helen has received many awards throughout her years of genealogical work. She is one of a small group honored with the title of CG Emeritus.

Helen has lectured extensively, always entertaining her audience with humor while driving her points home. Humor aside, Helen lectures for the serious genealogist by presenting methods of approach to solve the most difficult problem.

Watch the NCGS News newsletter and the NCGS website for the current webinar schedule.
Follow us on Facebook (www.facebook.com/ncgenealogy) for the latest news about upcoming events.

North Carolina Genealogical Society, 6300 Creedmoor Road, Suite 170 #323, Raleigh, NC 27612
www.ncgenealogy.org | info@ncgenealogy.org