The North Carolina Genealogical Society presents:

Jill Morelli, CG®

“A Salisbury Diary: Extracting Evidence for Context and Content”

February 3-5, 2023

About the Webinar: Using a diary can add to the story of your ancestor even if your ancestor is never mentioned. Learn how to integrate the experiences into the life events of another.

Jill Morelli, CG®, loves to share her passion for genealogy! To do so, she writes articles, takes clients and lectures, and conducts workshops nationwide in her areas of expertise: intermediate and advanced methodologies, unique record sets, and Scandinavian research techniques. Her articles, which usually reflect her current research endeavors, have appeared in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly (September 2017, December 2018), the Illinois State Genealogical Society Quarterly (winter 2016, summer 2018), and the Swedish American Genealogist (March 2019). She recently completed an article for the North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal (possible publication in 2020). Her research has taken her to North Carolina where she researched fifty captured Union soldiers of the 191st Pennsylvania Infantry who were confined at Salisbury Prison and focused on three “galvanized Yankees” who joined the Confederate Army. These research projects often “spin off” lectures or articles, such as the presentations “A Salisbury Diary: Extracting Evidence for Context and Content” and “Finding a Father for Molly Using DNA.” Jill is a member of the Salisbury Confederate Prison Association and president of the Seattle Genealogical Society. She earned the certification of Certified Genealogist in 2017. You can find out more about certification, and about Jill, at <http://theCDGseries.wordpress.com>.
