You're invited the NCGS Fall Conference!

2023 Fall Conference
Saturday, October 28th
9 am - 4 pm ET | In-person & Online

Join us on Saturday, October 28th in Raleigh and virtually for the 2023 NCGS Fall Conference.

This seminar-style day of learning will feature four classes by Shannon Combs-Bennett, a Qualified Genealogist (QG):

- Lineage Societies Are More Than Hats and Gloves: The Evolution of Lineage Societies and Their Contribution to the Field of Genealogy
- DNA Testing For Genealogy: It Really is More Than Just Spitting in a Test Tube
- Roadmaps Tell You More Than How to Get From A to B: Creating a Research Plan With DNA Testing
- Macclesfield to North Carolina: A Case Study Concerning the Brassfield Lines Who Helped Settle North Carolina

As a bonus, all attendees registered for either the in-person or live-streamed sessions will have access to recordings of all lectures for 30 days following the conference.

Don't Miss the September Live Webinar with Judy Russell

Join us Wednesday, September 6th, 7:00 pm – 8:00 pm for Legal Lingo in the Tarheel State: Using Black's Law Dictionary with Judy G. Russell, JD, CG®, CGLSM.

About the Webinar:

The language of North Carolina law is part Greek, part French, part Latin, even part Saxon – and all confusing. Every family's records are chock full of legal lingo that can appear utterly baffling even to an experienced genealogist. But understanding the legal lingo in the records is a critical part of understanding the records themselves — and we figure out what we need to know using resources like Black's Law Dictionary.

Any member of the public can register and see the LIVE event on September 6th. Only members will have access to the handout. Following the live event, only members will be able to view the webinar and get the handout in the webinar library.
